Foreword

Dear Participants,

It gives me great pleasure to share with you the outcomes and results of the International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm, with the theme of " Re-examining Leadership in the Context of Gender Equity " which was held at Bangkok, Thailand on 26th and 27th September, 2024. More than 280 people attended the event in person, and more than 500 people watched the live stream online. We were able to actively engage and reach out to a wider spectrum of research communities.

The International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm, provided a vibrant platform that brings together scholars, educators, and researchers from a variety of disciplines. It is a hub for exchanging innovative research about women in leadership across continents, Innovative leadership models : lessons from around the globe, policy implications for advancing women's leadership, international collaboration for women's empowerment, challenges and opportunities in developing regions, technology and global connectivity : transforming women's leadership, cultural influences on women's leadership styles, sustainable development and women's leadership, and global trends in women's leadership research that foster critical and creative thinking, mainly in the educational research, and fostering multidisciplinary exchanges among experts in education, science and technology.

We are grateful for the support of many universities and research institutes, whose contributions were vital to the success of this conference. We extend our sincere gratitude and highest respect to the professors who played an important role in the review process, providing valuable feedback and suggestions to authors to improve their work. We also extend our appreciation to the external reviewers for providing additional support in the review process and to the authors for contributing their research results to the 3rd Asia Pacific Conference on Educational Research, Social Science and Humanities (3rd APCERSSH - 2024).

1.1 Conference Overview

International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power was the place where ideas collided and innovations take the spotlight for the contribution towards achieving Sustainable Development Goals! International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership:

Redefining the Power Paradigm had long been the meeting place for women leaders, professionals, educators, researchers, policymakers, and industry professionals looking to network, share ideas, and grow in their respective fields. At this women, gender and leadership conference in Bangkok, Thailand, women leaders, professionals, academics, researchers, and educators were came together to share their groundbreaking research, and different views, and explore unique ideas from various fields on gender equality.

Through collaboration, the conference explored intersections between various disciplines and created a dynamic environment to enhance educational discussions and explore diverse studies. This International Conference in Bangkok, Thailand was a part of shaping the future of global education. They continued to inspire, transform, and shape education together. Their participation was more than just an RSVP; it is an important role in our community dedicated to academic success and positive change.

1.2 Conference Theme

The theme of the International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm " Re-examining Leadership in the Context of Gender Equity" was to provide a lively space where different academic areas come together. International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm stands as a melting pot of ideas, where the boundaries between advances in women, gender and leadership disciplines blur, giving rise to innovative solutions that address global challenges. The conference embraces the multidisciplinary nature of educational excellence driving through digital transformation, recognizing that true breakthroughs often occur at the intersections of different fields.

This theme encapsulates the conference's focus on fostering innovation and collaboration across diverse disciplines within women, gender and leadership. It encourages participants to explore and present cutting-edge solutions that contribute to the sustainable development of industries, addressing challenges and advancing knowledge for a better future. The multidisciplinary perspective highlights the interconnectedness of various fields in creating holistic and impactful solutions.

1.3 Objectives & Scope of the Conference

The primary objective of the International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm is to foster a collaborative environment where innovation, research, and knowledge converge.

Key objectives include:

Re-examining Leadership Models:

To explore and redefine leadership paradigms by focusing on inclusive, diverse, and gender-balanced approaches to power and authority.

Empowering Women and Gender Minorities:

To highlight strategies for empowering women and gender minorities in leadership roles and decision-making positions across sectors like business, education, government, and technology.

Challenging Existing Power Dynamics:

To critically examine traditional power dynamics and discuss how they can be transformed to promote equality, fairness, and inclusivity.

Fostering Global Collaboration:

To facilitate a platform for international scholars, policymakers, activists, and leaders to exchange ideas and best practices in promoting gender equity in leadership.

Encouraging Inclusive Policy Development:

To engage stakeholders in discussions around creating policies that ensure equitable representation and access to leadership opportunities for women and marginalized genders.

International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm transcends traditional boundaries, providing a platform for comprehensive exploration across a multitude of disciplines. The conference encompasses a wide scope that includes, but is not limited to:

1. Leadership and Gender: Exploring how leadership is perceived and enacted across genders, with a focus on challenges faced by women and gender minorities in achieving leadership roles.
2. Intersectionality and Power: Discussing the intersection of gender with other identities like race, ethnicity, class, and sexuality, and how these intersecting factors affect access to power and leadership positions.

3. Women in Leadership Across Sectors: Case studies and experiences of women in leadership in business, politics, education, and technology sectors, highlighting successful strategies and challenges.
4. Policy and Social Change: Examining how public policies, corporate policies, and social movements can promote gender equality in leadership positions.
5. Mentorship and Networking: Creating spaces for mentorship and networking to support women and gender minorities aspiring to leadership roles.
6. Global Perspectives: Bringing in global perspectives on gender and leadership, including regional challenges and success stories, to foster an international dialogue on the subject.

3. Welcoming & Introduction

Welcome to the International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm, where we gather the brightest minds and the most innovative ideas to inspire, educate, and connect. Before we dive into today's agenda, let's take a moment to appreciate the vibrant atmosphere here at Bangkok, Thailand. This location has been thoughtfully chosen to provide an inspiring environment for our discussions and networking. The theme of International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm is “ Re-examining Leadership in the Context of Gender Equity “. Our objective is to explore new technologies in women, gender and leadership, discuss emerging trends, foster collaboration, etc. Over the next two days, we have a packed schedule with eight sessions, one workshop, one panel discussion, two webinars and twenty one keynote presentations from industry leaders and experts. This conference would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of many individuals. We would like to extend a special thank you to our conference managers, and organizing committee members.

19. Vote of Thanks

Dear Researchers, Academicians & Students,

As we draw to the close of this remarkable International Conference on Women, Gender, and Leadership: Redefining the Power Paradigm, it is our honor and privilege to extend a vote of thanks on behalf of the organizing committee. Today has been a day filled with insights, inspiration, and invaluable networking opportunities, and none of this would have been possible without the collective efforts of many individuals and organizations.

Firstly, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to our esteemed speakers. Your expertise, thoughtful presentations, and engaging discussions have been the highlight of this conference. You have not only enlightened us with new knowledge but have also inspired us to think critically and creatively about the challenges and opportunities in our field.

A special thanks to our dedicated organizing committee and volunteers. Your hard work behind the scenes, meticulous planning, and tireless efforts have ensured that everything ran smoothly. Your passion and dedication are truly commendable, and this event could not have happened without you.

We are also grateful to our attendees. Your active participation, thoughtful questions, and enthusiastic engagement have added great value to this conference. It is your eagerness to learn and share that makes the events like this so rewarding and worthwhile.

We would like to acknowledge the venue staff for their excellent service and hospitality, providing us with a comfortable and conducive environment for our discussions and networking.

Finally, I want to thank everyone who has contributed, in big ways and small, to the success of this conference. Whether you were a speaker, sponsor, attendee, or volunteer, your involvement has been crucial.

As we conclude, let us take with us the knowledge we have gained, the connections we have made, and the inspiration to drive forward in our respective fields. We look forward to seeing you at future conferences and continuing these valuable conversations.
